MEMORANDUM FOR All personnel assigned

SUBJECT: Battalion Policy Letter #16 Safety Awards Program

1. This policy letter establishes an incentive program to recognize units and individuals for contributions and enhancements to the Army Safety Program.
2. A supply of incentive gifts are maintained with the 27TH Transportation Battalion Safety Officer/NCO. These items may be presented as impact awards to recognize and reward safe acts. Incentive gifts may also be requested by commanders for their use in recognizing detachment personnel.
3. Each unit that completes a fiscal year (FY) without a Soldier convicted of, or administratively determined to have been driving while intoxicated (DWI) or driving under the influence (DUI) of intoxicating beverages or drugs is eligible for an award from 3COSCOC and V CORPS.
4. The Battalion Commander will award detachments a four day weekend for "Zero Days lost" due to an accident, DUI, or working under the influence (WUI) at the end of each quarter.
5. Every Soldier in the Battalion is a Safety Officer and empowered to make on the spot corrections or halt an activity deemed unsafe. Leaders at all levels are responsible for setting and following standards that prevent accidents.
6. GEARED TO FIT!
